VIRGINIA IS EASY FOR HOLY CROSS IN EASTER GAME

Small Crowd Witnesses Contest at Charlottesville—Score Is 4 to 1.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Charlottesville, Va., April 8.—Holy Cross had little trouble in defeating Virginia today, by the score of 4 to 1, before one of the smallest Easter crowds in years, many being kept away by the cold weather, a biting wind sweeping across the field.

Godhue was on the mound for Virginia and twirled a surprisingly good game. The contest was nip and tuck until the ninth, when the Massachusetts bunched a double and single, which, with an error, netted two runs.

Lynch started off in the box for Holy Cross, but blew up in the seventh. Two men were down, when he lost control and issued three passes in succession. He was succeeded by H. Murray, a freshman, who acquitted himself manfully. Finally, the third baseman was grounded out, second to first. In the next two innings the recruit tanned such hitters as came against him.

Godhue went on to pitch a perfect game, but was hit by a double and a single, which, with an error, netted two runs.
